Court of Claims of the United States.

CONGRESSIONAL CLAIMS.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION.

Now come the defendants, the United States, by the Attorney General, and move the court to dismiss the claims (and each of them) heretofore referred to this court by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, enumerated in the schedule of congressional claims hereto attached and made part of this motion, and all other claims, filed in this court, that may come within the purview of this motion, and for cause show that said claims are (and each of them is) barred from the jurisdiction of this court by the provisions of section five (5) of the act of Congress approved March 4, 1915 (38 Stat., 996), commonly known as the Crawford amendment.

HUSTON THOMPSON,
Assistant Attorney General.

NOTICE.

To claimants and attorneys for claimants:

You are hereby notified that the defendants have this day filed in the Court of Claims their foregoing motion to dismiss the claims (and each of them) enumerated in the within schedule of congressional claims and all other claims filed in said court that may come within the purview of said motion, and that on November 1, 1915, or at such time thereafter as they may be heard, said defendants will pray the allowance of said motion by the court.

HUSTON THOMPSON,
Assistant Attorney General.

Dated September 15, 1915.

THE CRAWFORD AMENDMENT.

[Act of Mar. 4, 1915, § 5 (38 Stat., 996).]

Sec. 5. That from and after the passage and approval of this act the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims shall not extend to or include any claim against the United States based upon or growing out of the destruction of any property or damage done to any property by the military or naval forces of the United States during the war for the suppression of the rebellion; nor to any claim for stores and supplies taken by or furnished to or for the use of the military or naval forces of the United States, nor to any claim for the value of any use and occupation of any real estate by the military or naval forces of the United States during said war; nor shall said Court of Claims have jurisdiction of any claim which is now barred by the provisions of any law of the United States.
